

The sweep measures recoverability of already identified failures; it is not an oracle-free policy for unseen cases.